We know that you have many products in the home appliances market to choose from, and we appreciate your purchase of our Star Liner Drier. For immediate use, please read the following instructions. For more detailed information, please consult our manual.

In most cases for typical drying functions, you need only open the door to your new drier and load the barrel. However, keep the following advice in mind:

- Never electronically dry woolen or silk articles. These should always be dried indoors on a flat surface to prevent shrinkage.
- Never load more than the suggested 12-kilogram load as specified by the manufacturer. Not only will this result in incomplete drying of the articles, but it will also cause increased friction on the rotating barrel.
- Always ground your electrical home appliances before use. Consult the manual or call an electrician. We at Star Liner believe in Safety First.

There are only two settings on your drier, plus the timers. Choose "High" (for most cotton apparel) or "Low" (for most synthetics) heat first; then set the timers for preferred heat treatment.

Following the above instructions will result in satisfactory performance for many years to come.
41. For whom are these instructions written?
   A. Home appliance manufacturers
   B. Electricians
   C. Customers
   D. Sales Personnel

42. Why should one not use the drier for woolen or silk clothing?
   A. They do not need drying.
   B. They are too heavy.
   C. They may shrink.
   D. They may cause electric shock.

43. According to these instructions, what is the function of the "barrel"?
   A. For the loading of clothing
   B. For prevention of electric shock
   C. For setting the level of heat
   D. For setting the timers

Chances are you have a mobile phone. Few users in Taiwan, however, have third-generation (3G) service. But by the year 2009, 3G mobile handsets both in Taiwan and around Asia will increase, and increase dramatically.

Third-generation users in Asia are now limited mostly to Japan. There, one can enjoy the fruit of 3G technology, such as video calling, surfing the Internet, and downloading both video and audio files while on the move. Problems including target marketing, tariffs, branding, content and applications, and service quality still need to be worked out in other Asian nations. By 2009, however, with more than 100 million new users in Asia, 3G telephony will become the standard throughout that vast continent.

44. What is the main idea of this article?
   A. A new telecommunications technology
   B. Why Asia leads the world in 3G telephony

Budgeting seems to be a lost art. More and more governments, businesses, and households are exceeding their revenues and getting into debt. This poses real and serious problems for the future. Formerly, credit was tight, especially for businesses and households. Over time, however, obtaining loans became easier, and with rapid growth in national, corporate, and personal economies, debt was no longer a four-letter word.

Debts must be repaid, or economic disaster follows. It is high time that governments and businesses acted responsibly. Perhaps only then will both the public and private sectors resume their former habit of saving.

49. What is the best title for this article?
   A. National Debts at an All-Time High
   B. Public Debt Is Greater Than National Debt
   C. Revenues Are on the Increase
   D. The Lack of Budgeting in Modern Society
50. What will happen if debts are not paid back?
   A. There will be more four-letter words used.
   B. Severe economic problems will occur.
   C. Credit will become tight.
   D. Governments and businesses will save more.
